I hope that you are all faring well in the storm aftermath. The images on the news from NY/NJ are surreal. All is well up here in Cambridge - outside of some coastal areas, MA did not get hit anywhere near as badly. Our NJ colleagues are still facing logistical issues in one way or another but they seem to have made it through safely...lucky indeed.

I'll check availability on our end for late Nov/early Dec meeting dates.

Regards,

Peter

Sorry about the ST memo. We were supposed to get it back to you early this week, but it has not been easy with power outages and transportation problems. I have not heard from Rooni in a while. He did not have power, and Hoboken was all flooded. I hope that we will be getting closer to normal by next week. We will try our best to get it back to you as soon as possible.

Hope you did not get much damage with the storm. We were quite lucky.
